Girls on the Run of NOVA Named ‘One of the Best’ Nonprofits by the Catalogue for Philanthropy
As it Celebrates its 17th Anniversary Serving the Greater Washington Region, the Catalogue for Philanthropy is Proud to Honor Girls on the Run of NOVA

FAIRFAX, VA – After a careful vetting process, the Catalogue for Philanthropy: Greater Washington has selected Girls on the Run of NOVA (GOTR NOVA) to be part of the Class of 2019-20. GOTR NOVA has undergone a rigorous review process conducted by a team of 150+ local experts, and has met the Catalogue’s high standards. Potential donors can be confident that the nonprofits in the Catalogue are worthy of their support. GOTR NOVA envisions a world where every girl knows she has the ultimate power to be her best.

This year the Catalogue celebrates its 17th anniversary: since its inception it has raised $40 million for nonprofits in the region. It also offers trainings and neighborhood-based opportunities for collaboration.

This year, reviewers helped select 78 nonprofits to feature in the print edition, 36 of which are new to the Catalogue this year. It also selected an additional 36 nonprofits to be re-featured on its website. The network now includes 400+ vetted nonprofits working in the arts, education, environment, and human services sectors throughout Greater Washington.

“People want to get involved in their community—they want to make a difference, close to home. Based on our rigorous review process, we believe that GOTR NOVA is one of the best community-based nonprofits in the region,” says Matt Gayer, Director of Community and Nonprofit Development at the Catalogue for Philanthropy.

“It is a real honor to have the Catalogue’s seal of approval and, more importantly, their support to see all girls across the Northern Virginia region have access to our remarkable program,” says Katey Comerford, Executive Director of GOTR NOVA.
The Catalogue believes in the power of small nonprofits to spark big change. And they believe in GOTR NOVA to continue to further that positive change, working each day to lift up, strengthen, and enrich young girls in our local community.
